Tin Mountain Nature Learning Center

Open: Monday through Saturday 9 AM - 5 PM

Friday Weekly Building Tours      11 AM – 12 PM

The TMCC Nature Learning Center building contains many environmentally friendly features including 20 species of woods used throughout the building. Learn about the inner workings of the solar thermal and photovoltaic systems, and the wood fired back-up heating system.

Saturday Weekly Guided Hikes      10 AM – 12 PM

Join TMCC staff exploring the Nature Learning Center trails through the seasons and visit the historic granite quarry, lunch rock, the beaver pond and much more. Wear sturdy shoes and dress for the weather. Winter hikes will be on snowshoes when conditions permit.

Work Field Days

It's time to hit the trails for some trail maintenance. We will be clearing, creating, and marking trails, as well as repairing rock walls, revitalizing pastureland, building a boardwalk, and much more. Bring your own clippers, tools, and gloves or borrow ours.

Saturday, January 20      9 AM - 12 PM

Tuesday, February 6      9 AM - 12 PM

Saturday, March 17      9 AM - 12 PM

Tuesday, April 3      9 AM - 12 PM

Volunteer Opportunities:

Tin Mountain relies heavily upon volunteers to fulfill our mission of bringing environmental education to the greater Mt Washington Valley and western Maine. The opening of the Nature Learning Center presents many new volunteer opportunities. Call 603-447-6991 or email Joshua Potter (jpotter@tinmtn.org) for opportunities.

Eco-Forum

Brownbag Lunch Speaker Series

New! Free of Charge!

Location: TMCC Nature Learning Center

You've heard of the Commonwealth Club of CA, the Cleveland City Club Forum, and the National Press Club Lunches – Now it's the TMCC Eco-Forum! You bring the lunch; we'll provide the food for thought! Join us each month for presentations by noted experts on a wide variety of provocative environmental issues followed by a question and answer period. Please note that the views expressed in the Eco-Forum are those of the speaker and not necessarily that of Tin Mountain Conservation Center.

The Beauty of Evolution

February 8, 2007, Noon – 1 PM

Speaker: Ted Levin, author "Backtracking: The Way of a Naturalist", "Liquid Land: A Journey Through the Florida Everglades"

Topic: Nationally known naturalist, writer, photographer, and recipient of the John Burroughs Medal, Ted Levin will discuss the controversy over teaching creationism vs. evolution in public schools, and why he feels evolution is such a vital component in a child's education. Ted will share historical perspectives on the debate and his observations about the current state of the issue. Ted's work has appeared in Audubon, Sierra, and National Geographic.

Plum Creek's Plans for the Moosehead Lake Region – Paradise Lost?

March 8, 2007, Noon – 1 PM

Speaker: Sally Stockwell, PhD, Conservation Director, Maine Audubon

Topic: How will the proposed Plum Creek development of Moosehead Lake affect wildlife and wildlife habitat, especially where endangered or threatened species are concerned? Sally will share how Maine Audubon is leading the effort to eliminate and minimize the threats Plum Creek's plan poses to the Moosehead Lake region.

No Net Loss of Wetlands?

April 12, 2007, Noon – 1 PM

Speaker: Rick Van de Poll, PhD, Ecosystems Management

Topic: Are all wetlands created equal? Are they afforded adequate protection? Nationally known local ecologist Rick Van de Poll will drive home the importance of wetlands conservation including new state programs, the pros and cons of wetlands mitigation, and whether we have had "no net loss".

LCHIP – A State Role in Land Conservation?

May 10, 2007, Noon – 1 PM

Speaker: Rachel Rouillard, Director, Land and Community Heritage Investment Program (LCHIP)

Topic: Does the state have a legitimate role in funding land and community heritage conservation? What kind of returns on investment have we seen from LCHIP since 2001? Rachel will explain why LCHIP exists, highlight some current and past projects, and enlighten everyone to the critical role the state can play in protecting the last best places in New Hampshire.

Adult Nature Courses

These 4-week courses provide an in-depth look at various natural science and cultural history topics. Individuals with all levels of experience are encouraged to enroll. Each session meets one day/week for 2.5 hours combining time in our laboratory classroom and library with field studies as well as a weekend field trip. ANC participants will examine each study area through lectures, slideshows, hands-on exploration, guest speakers, and selected readings, .

For reservations, mail in the registration form (p13), call TMCC at 603-447-6991 or email Joshua at jpotter@tinmtn.org.

Courses over $50 require a $25 non-refundable deposit.

Winter Ecology

Instructor: Dick Fortin

Dates: January 17, 24, 31 & February 7 - 6:30-9:00 pm, Field Trip: January 27

Tuition: $95 Members, $110 Non-members

Naturalist Dick Fortin will make you think like an animal trying to survive the harsh New England winter. We will examine different strategies for survival, learn mammal tracking, and put our nature-sleuthing skills to the test while unlocking the stories in the winter forest. This course will also include a starwatch, cover plant acclimation to the cold, as well as how changing snowpack affects wildlife.

Settlement History of the Saco Valley & Mt. Washington Region

Instructor: Carol Foord

Dates: February 27, March 6, 13 & 20 - 6:30-9:00 pm, Field Trip: March 31

Tuition: $95 Members, $110 Non-members

Join Teacher/Naturalist Carol Foord for a look at how our region has been shaped by both glaciers and humans. Through artifacts, selected reading, and lectures, the course will examine the fundamentals of glacial geology, the contact period of Native Americans with Europeans, and the agrarian lifestyle that changed the natural landscape and all but erased the Native way of life that had existed for thousands of years. At the Saturday field trip we will visit stoneworks sites rich in history to broaden our understanding of why many settlements disappeared in the late 1800s.

Budding Botanist

Instructor: Mike Cline, PhD

Dates: March 28, April 4, 11 & 19 - 6:30-9:00 pm, Field Trip: April 21

Tuition: $95 Members, $110 Non-members

Join Executive Director Mike Cline and guest instructors to learn about the inner workings of our native flora. We will begin with basic principles of plant biology and identification, and build to a scientific understanding of taxonomy and anatomy. We will take our new knowledge into the field as spring unfolds.

Field Study Courses

Using our Bald Hill property, the Mt Washington Valley, and Northern England as our laboratory, we will explore various natural science and cultural history topics in-depth.

For reservations, mail in the registration form (p13), call TMCC at 603-447-6991 or email Joshua at jpotter@tinmtn.org.

Courses over $50 require a $25 non-refundable deposit.

Winter Photography

Instructor: Ed & Kathy Bergeron

Dates: February 3, 8 AM - 3 PM

Tuition: $35 Members, $40 Non-members

Accomplished local photographers Ed and Kathy Bergeron will use the lenses of both digital and 35mm SLR to explore the southern portion of the Mt. Washington Valley. The Cascades, Heath Pond Bog, and Hoyt Nature Preserve are among the stops on this winter workshop that will help photographers of every level take better wintertime photographs. Includes a warm-up stop at the Eaton Village Store.

Steve Thomas

Dendrochronology & Winter Tree I.D.

Instructor: Mike Cline, PhD, Joshua Potter

Dates: March 3, 8 AM - 3 PM

Tuition: $35 Members, $40 Non-members

Learn to identify major tree and shrub species of the North Woods in winter. Using branch arrangement, buds, bark and habitat, even the novice naturalist can learn to recognize different species without leaves. Next we will take tree core samples to learn, not only the age of a tree, but also much more about its life history.

Carol Foord

Stone Walls & Cellar Holes

Instructor: Carol Foord

Dates: April 13, 6:30-8:30 PM, April 14, 9 AM - 4 PM, April 15, 9 AM-Noon

Tuition: $65 Members, $75 Non-members

Join Teacher/Naturalist Carol Foord for this weekend intensive investigation of why New England's landscape enticed Europeans to settle its northern frontiers, and how towns began and reshaped the wilderness. An evening of legends and lore enhance our understanding of the Europeans' encroachment on Native lands and way of life. Field trips include visits to stonewalls, cemeteries and fieldstone cellars of old farmsteads.

Carol Foord

Winter Camp for Children

Cost: $30 Members, $40 Non-members

Snow Survival

Tuesday, February 20, 9:00 AM - 3:00 PM

TMCC Nature Learning Center, Albany

Grades: 2 through 4 Bring a Lunch

Become a snow sleuth and discover how to stay warm in winter by building your own quinzee. We'll do a variety of snow experiments and look at different types of snow to see how animals survive the winter.

Winter Art

Wednesday, February 21, 9:00 AM - 3:00 PM

TMCC Nature Learning Center, Albany

Grades: 3 through 6 Bring a Lunch

Snow sculptures, sketching, and winter watercolors are just some of the art projects for the day. We will spend time both inside and outside so dress warmly and bring a lunch. We will provide craft materials, snowshoes, and hot cocoa.

Winter Wildlife Camp

Thursday, February 22, 9:00 AM - 3:00 PM

TMCC Nature Learning Center, Albany

Grades: K through 2 Bring a Lunch

Join the winter fun by becoming a wildlife track detective. We will count toes, identify patterns, and follow animal tracks through the forest. The day will also include games and a winter craft. Dress warmly and bring a lunch. We will provide cocoa and snowshoes.

Fun for all ages! See Nature Program Series

Tin Mountain Winter Festival

Part of the Valley Winter Carnival

Sat, Feb 24, 10:00 AM - 3:00 PM at the TMCC Nature Learning Center

Nature Program Series

Our thanks to L.L. Bean and Evenor Armington Fund for their continued sponsorship.

Programs are open to the public. Unless otherwise noted, donations of $3.00 per person and $5.00 per family are greatly appreciated. Members are free.

Snowshoe Wanderings

Saturday, January 27, 10:00 AM - 3:00 PM

Meet at Sherman's Farm Stand

Director Michael Cline will lead this exploration of Tin Mountain's newly acquired lands off the East Conway Road. These ~1200 acres are home to a large variety of wildlife, tall timber, and a variety of unique habitats. Strap on your snowshoes, (or borrow ours), dress warmly and bring a lunch. Call 603-447-6991 for reservations.

Antarctica:

Journey to the Bottom of the World

Thursday, February 1, 7:00 PM

TMCC Nature Learning Center, Albany

Chris Lewey of RAVEN Interpretive Programs will recount his adventures to this continent of ice and snow, discussing the journey from Ushuaia, Argentina, the southernmost city in the world, across the Drake Passage, to the Antarctic Peninsula. Examining the wildlife indigenous to this extreme region helps unveil many of the unique adaptations of this frozen world.

Full Moon Owl Prowl

Friday, February 2, 7:00 PM

Great Glen Trails, Pinkham Notch, NH

Co-Sponsored with Great Glen Trails

Who's out on a beautiful moonlit night? Why owls, of course. We will snowshoe the trails of Great Glen in search of common owls of New Hampshire. Bring your own snowshoes, or borrow ours. Call 603-447-6991 for reservations.

Andrew Thompson

Chris Lewey

Liquid Land, Florida Everglades

Thursday, February 8, 7:00 PM

TMCC Nature Learning Center, Albany

Join renowned author and photographer Ted Levin on this slide journey to the Everglades. He will look at the delicate balance between water, people, flora, and fauna of this endangered ecosystem.

Cross-Country Ski at the Brownfield Bog

Saturday, February 10, 10:00 AM-2:00 PM

Meet at Grants Store in Brownfield

Explore the wonderful wild wetlands of the beautiful Brownfield Bog on cross-country skis. The 6,000 acres, owned by the State of Maine, abound with winter wildlife tracks from river otters and moose to owls and coyotes. Dress warm, bring your own skis and a lunch, and please call 603-447-6991 for reservations.

Winter Birds of Plum Island

Saturday, February 17, 7:30 AM

Meet at TMCC Nature Learning Center, Albany

Snowy owls, snow buntings, harriers, and rough-legged hawks are just a few of the possibilities that we may see on our annual trip to this remarkable birding spot. A long car ride, but worth it for a good day of winter birding. Call 603-447-6991 for reservations.

Winter Festival

Saturday, February 24, 10:00 AM - 3:00 PM

TMCC Nature Learning Center, Albany

Part of the Valley Winter Carnival

Join in the fun as we celebrate all that is fantastic about winter. The day will include guided snowshoe hikes, snow shelter building, winter survival skills, guided ski tours, wildlife tracking, and more! Call 603-447-6991 for reservations.

Full Moon Snowshoe

Saturday, March 3, 7:00 PM

TMCC Nature Learning Center, Albany

Explore the forested trails at the Nature Learning Center under the light of the full March Moon. Who knows what we will find... Dress warmly and bring snowshoes or borrow ours. Call 603-447-6991 for reservations.

Ski Tour Nanamocomuck

Saturday, March 10, 10:00 AM

Meet at the parking lot, Albany Covered Bridge

There's nothing like a day skiing the Nanamocomuck trail! We will search for signs of otters and mink along the river's edge and enjoy the variety of forest types found along this trail. No beginners please. Bring your own skis and a lunch. Call 603-447-6991 for reservations.

First Season Festival

Sunday, March 18, 5:00 PM

North Conway Grand Hotel

Mark your calendar for our annual fundraising dinner and auction! Consider donating an auction item, but don't even consider missing this event. George Cleveland is auctioneer. Over 300 items are on view. Reservations are required. Tickets are $35. Call 603-447-6991 to make reservations.

The Greening of Spring

Wednesday, March 21, 7:00 PM

Cook Memorial Library, Tamworth

Education Director Lori Jean Kinsey will share slides and stories of the harbingers of spring - the ephemeral wildflowers. From hepatica to bloodroot and squirrel corn to trillium, it will be a chance to brush up on your flower ID before the spring bloom.

Maple Sugaring

Saturday, March 24, 10:00 AM – 12:00 PM

Fortin Farm on Steward Road, Eaton

Join backyard sugaring enthusiast Dick Fortin as he walks us through the process of maple sugaring. We will tap sugar maple trees, collect sap, boil it down, and have a taste. What a sweet day! Call 603-447-6991 for reservations and directions.

Life History of the Honey Bee

Thursday, April 5, 7:00 PM

TMCC Nature Learning Center, Albany

Chris Lewey, a beekeeper for over 30 years, will introduce the science of keeping bees including ecology of the honey bee, a closer look at operations inside a modern hive, the social structure of the colony, and the role of the three classes of bees. This program will inspire awe for these hardworking insects. Look for the new hives at Tin Mountain later this spring.

Here Comes the Sun

Saturday, April 7, 10:00 AM

TMCC Learning Center, Albany

The computers are running and the building is toasty thanks to the power of the sun. Learn about the inner workings of the solar heating and photovoltaic electrical systems at the Tin Mountain Nature Learning Center.

Vernal Pools

Thursday, April 19, 7:00 PM

Grand Summit Hotel, Bartlett

The ice is melting and the vernal pools are teeming with life including wood frogs, spotted salamanders, and fairy shrimp. Join naturalist Dick Fortin as he explains the dynamics of these fascinating and very special ecosystems.

Wonderful Woodcocks

Friday, April 13, 7:00 PM

TMCC Nature Learning Center, Albany

Who will be the first to hear the “peeenting” woodcocks this spring? Learn about this fascinating bird and then head out to the fields to see its “Sky Dance” mating ritual. Call 603-447-6991 for reservations.
