

Practice Ride

Posted At : March 19, 2007 6:33 AM | Posted By : Hillclimb Staffer

Related Categories: Practice Ride

When is the practice ride?

Sunday, July 15th from 5-7 a.m. (Practice Ride is Full for 2007)

I'm already signed up for the practice ride, where do I need to be to start?

The practice ride will take place on Sunday, July 15, 2007 with riders starting up the mountain between 5:00 and 7:00a.m. All riders must be present between the hours of 5 -7 a.m. at the base of the Mt Washington Autoroad.

No riders will be permitted after 7:00 a.m. , no exceptions.

How do I get back down?

All riders must prove they have a driver that can bring them back down. Under no circumstances will a rider be permitted to ride if they don't have a ride down; no exceptions.

How do I register for the practice ride?

Registration will open after the Hillclimb sells out so watch this site for more info.

Is there a cost to the do the practice ride?

If you are registered for the Mt. Washington Auto Road Bicycle Hillclimb, there is no additional cost for the practice ride. Registered Hillclimb racers will need to give their ID # found on the confirmation form from registration.

Non-registered riders will be charged $50 (Non-refundable) collected by credit card when you call in to register for the Practice Ride.

Is there a charge for cars?

Mt Washington Auto Road rates are posted on their web site. The Auto Road Toll House will be following weight and car restrictions. Please email Mary if you have any questions or again visit the Auto Road web site. The Toll House does accept Credit Cards.

Will there be any amenities at the practice ride?

No. The practice ride is unsupported, there won't be any: food, water, mechanical support, timing, blankets, awards, EMTs, etc. So if there is something you think you might need, be sure to bring it with you!

Is there a field limit to the practice ride?

Yes. The field will be limited to approx. 300 riders