

Just how steep is the course?

Posted At : March 26, 2007 5:31 AM | Posted By : Hillclimb Staffer

Related Categories: Race Information, FAQ's-IMPORTANT INFO

The Mt. Washington Hill Climb is quickly becoming known as the toughest hill climb in the world.

The Mt Washington Auto Road is 7.6 miles in length, has an average grade of 12% with extended sections of 18% and the last 50 yards is an amazing 22%! Sprint that to the finish!

See www.Northeastcycling.com for some great information.